—Your Full Package Includes—

Trained guides, canoes, all necessary equipment/gear (not including personal items & sleeping bags), all food, Garmin inReach satellite communicator, Boundary Water Canoe Area (BWCA) permits, and transportation to and from entry point(s). Unless other arrangements are made, your first night stay at our KoWaKan Base Camp includes supper, special orientation, packing, final routing and preparations (NOTE: this counts as one night of your reservation).

All arrivals are at our KoWaKan Base Camp, 15 miles east of Ely, MN.

—Permit Group Policies & Fees—

BWCA policy allows a maximum of 9 people in each permit group, which includes one KoWaKan guide. This leaves 8 participant spaces in each permit group.

- We require a $250 non-refundable deposit for each permit group. NOTE: Deposit is transferrable to the next year if cancellation is made at least two weeks prior to trip.
- We calculate trip cost for a minimum of 5 participants. Groups with fewer participants will be charged this rate.
- We ask that groups provide an adult to serve as a co-leader for each permit group. NOTE: BWCA guidelines require each permit group travel/camp in separate areas

Once your deposit is received, we will provide you with an Initial Services Agreement with the estimated cost of your trip based on the numbers you provide in this form. We ask that you update us on the final number of participants at least 2 weeks before your trip. We'll make any final adjustments to your bill as needed upon your arrival at camp.
